NEW PROCESS WILL CUT COAL PRICES IN TWO

Scheme Completed for Treatment of Lignite Deposits of Western Canada.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
WINNIPEG, June 13.—The important announcement was made today by Dr. Rutman of the government's research council to the Manufacturers' association that Western Canada will have an abundance of coal within a very short time at a price about two-thirds the price of anthracite. This will be secured by a process for the treatment of lignite coal lying in such vast quantities in Western Canada, and, according to figures given by Dr. Rutman, there can be turned out from Winnipeg from 100,000 to 200,000 tons daily.

Scheme Completed
The whole scheme for this undertaking is complete and has been recommended to the government, preliminary work of equipment being given at $400,000.

Dr. Rutman's announcement was received enthusiastically by the convention.

Ex-Mayor Deacon, Winnipeg, assured Dr. Rutman that if that sum was all that was necessary for a project that would prove such a boon to Western Canada, he would have no hesitations of mind, for in Winnipeg on any afternoon it could be got.

McCallum, chairman of the research council, explained that the object of the council was to endeavor to bring to bear upon industrial research all the scientific methods which would advance them; to investigate and discover new methods; and to determine what the country equally has in the way of natural resources and resources.

He emphasized the need for a permanent research industrial laboratory where experts could take up and solve all problems of industry and manufacture.

England Has No Regrets
LONDON, June 13.—The abdication of King Constantine will cause no regrets in England. In the days of the war, King Constantine was a popular figure here, but his actions since the war began, which have been interpreted as strongly pro-German, have lost him his popularity. For many months there has been a strong party in an outside parliament which demanded that vigorous measures be taken to curb his anti-entente activities.

The former Greek crown prince, George, is no more popular in England. Prince Alexander, who is to be king, is expected to act more in accordance with the wishes of former Premier Venizelos who so often has come to the rescue of Greece in her days of trouble.

Integrity of Country
On its comment upon King Constantine's abdication, the Westminster Gazette, after referring to Constantine's record and his refusal of Serbia to come to her aid and to fulfill the treaty of alliance, undertook after the second Balkan war, says:

"The allies were absolutely sincere in desiring the desire to protect the integrity and independence of Greece. Prince Alexander will have fair play as constitutional ruler, and, if so chosen, as an honest neutral."

Prevent Harvest Control
"It was not time to depose King Constantine" was the question asked in the Daily Chronicle yesterday morning. Lord Robert Cecil, in his speech in the house of commons that the allies were taking steps to prevent Constantine from obtaining control of the Thessalian harvest, says that in the most important grain growing region of Greece and its harvest will very soon be reaped. If the grain had been left to Constantine, it would have been the wherewithal to defy an allied blockade for a long time to come.

The king has always attached extreme importance to keeping the district within the royalist boundaries, and, says the Chronicle, "although he is a man of the royal house, a proportion of Venizelists among his population, it was left to the king when the allies agreed on the line between the territory under his government and that of the Venizelists."

This was done, presumably, because the alternative then would have been war with King Constantine's still numerous army, which the allies were quite incapable of contributing any serious number of organized troops.

"DOWN ON FACES!" WHEN BOMBS BEGAN TO FALL NEAR BY

Grand Trunk Railway Manager Tells of Exciting Experience In London Air Raid.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, June 13.—Mr. Fred Salter, European manager of the Grand Trunk Railway system, had an exciting experience during today's raid. He was in a building in the heart of the centre attacked when the raiders arrived and when the first bombs fell close by everybody shouted "Down on your faces." Everyone lay prone. In another second the windows fell in. Mr. Salter says that he was covered with fragments of glass but was otherwise absolutely unharmed. Several people just outside were killed or injured.

Mr. Salter speaks highly of the prompt manner in which assistance was rendered the wounded. As soon as the raid began special constables left their offices, adjusting their arm-bands while running, and proceeded directly to their appointed stations. Ambulances were on the scene immediately.

The quarters of London unaffected by the raid, business proceeded this afternoon just as usual.

VENIZELIS TO HAVE CONTROL GREEK AFFAIRS

Matin Says He Will Play Important Part In Future of Country.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
PARIS, June 13.—It is certain that Venizelos will be called upon to play an important part in the immediate future of Greece, says the Matin, but it would be premature, it thinks, to attempt to define what he will do. "Prince Nicholas, who has been his brother's enemy, must leave the kingdom," says the newspaper. As to the king, the queen and the crown prince, it is probable that not many days will lapse before they will be sent to Greece.

The abdication of Constantine, who had been told by Emperor William to keep his throne, undoubtedly has a severe setback for Germany. The action of the allies was foreseen in Athens and despairing appeals were made to the Emperor to send a few more troops to the Balkans.

German Airplanes Take Heavy Toll in Killed And Wounded in Raid

Casualties Officially Estimated At 534: 97 Killed and 434 Wounded—Squadron Of Fifteen Machines—Down-town Section Of Metropolis Chief Objective—Many Bombs Fell In East End—Ten Children Killed In A School And Fifty Injured—One Machine Reported Brought Down By British Fighters.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, June 13.—In a swift and deadly raid on the city of London today German airplanes took heavy toll in killed and wounded. Other places were attacked but so far as is known at present by far the heavier losses occurred in London town itself.

At a late hour tonight the casualties as officially announced numbered 534, including 97 killed and 434 wounded. Fifty-five men met death and 233 men were wounded. Sixteen women and 24 children were killed and 122 women and 94 children were wounded.

The German squadron consisted of about fifteen machines, and the down-town section of London was their chief objective. Many bombs fell in the east end where buildings were destroyed and others badly damaged and scores of persons killed or injured.

One instance ten children were killed in a school and fifty were injured.

One hostile machine descended on the signal that hostile machines were coming, but the Germans remained at a great height and flew swiftly and evidently the British fighters had difficulty in the pursuit for the loss of only one German machine has been recorded. Others are reported to have been brought down but their exact position is not known.

The anti-aircraft guns of London were seemingly unable to reach the Germans.

While a great many small business houses and the homes of poor in the crowded districts suffered great damage, Field Marshal Viscount French, commander of the home defense, announced that no damage of a military or naval nature was done.

Fourth Plane Attack
This is the fourth raid in Germany's new series of aerial attacks on England, in which airplanes have been substituted for Zeppelins, used on account of the success of the British in bringing down the dirigibles.

The last previous raid was on June 5, when it was reported that 100 machines in the German squadron were driven down by British airmen in this raid in which two persons were killed and 100 wounded.

On May 23 four or five German aircraft flew over the eastern English counties and dropped bombs which killed one man. The largest number of casualties in these attacks was occasioned by the raid on May 25 over southeast England in which about 45 airplanes took part. The bombs dropped killed 70 persons and injured 174.

Description of Raid
LONDON, June 13.—Three hostile airplanes appeared over the busiest part of the downtown section of London at half-past 11 this morning and worked a rapid transformation in the busy streets. The sound of the explosion of bombs in the east end of anti-aircraft guns from perches around the business districts gave the public warning of danger, vehicular traffic stopped, and pedestrians sought shelter. Drivers ordered all passengers to alight and buses, taxicabs, wagons and lorries were left stranded in the streets until the danger was past.

Shopkeepers and their patrons, barbers and their customers, bankers and lawyers and their clients quietly and promptly adjourned their business and hurried to places of safety as the mental state of each particular person demanded.

Special constables appeared by the hundred, as if by magic, in every street and corner of the narrow-laned downtown district and ordered pedestrians within doors. It was difficult, however, to keep the people under cover, as many of the people were more interested in getting a glimpse of the battle overhead than in escaping danger.

Crowds on Flat Roofs
There was no way to keep the crowds off the flat roofs of the downtown buildings, where presumably the danger of falling shrapnel was greatest, but where a superb view of the raiders could be obtained. From the roof of the Associated Press office the airplanes could be distinctly seen at a height of at least two miles in the triangular formation which is a familiar sight to anyone who has visited the western front. The trio were so high that they appeared like three shiny flakes of snow against the bright sky.

The anti-aircraft gunners were doing fairly creditably, in this their first battle practice in many months. The raiders, apparently, were a little too high for the guns, which nevertheless did some damage, forcing the enemy to keep at an altitude where it was impossible to locate any objectives.

Guns Made It Hot
The flaky smoke from thirty or forty shrapnel bursts fired in repeated salvos from a dozen or more eager guns hung long minutes in the sky, outlining a terrific and a great frame of white puffs. It was plain to see that the snarling bursts were too close to the visitors for their comfort, calling forth a volley of machine gun signals from the squadron leader, directing his brood to retreat quickly.

The squadron's route over London was like a great hairpin—a straight arrow flight into the city, then a wide curve and a straight arrow flight out again. The whole view of this trio occupied less than five minutes and no other raiders were visible from this observation point.

Military Service Bill May Be Up Thursday For Second Reading

Ottawa, June 13.—The second reading of the Military Service bill will probably be proceeded with in the house this week. If it is not taken up tomorrow it will be on Friday. The bill will have another caucus on Thursday and will probably be ready to proceed with the debate on the measure in the afternoon.

Cabinet reconstruction within party lines is in the air and is likely to come within a few days, it is said. In connection with the succession of Hon. E. L. Patenaude, who retired from the cabinet on Saturday, names mentioned include Judge J. M. Teller and H. Laport of the war purchasing committee. Things would be simplified if Mr. Patenaude in quitting the cabinet had also resigned his seat in Hochelaga.

Speculation is now turning to what will happen in connection with the bill to extend the life of parliament, but it may be some time before it is brought down to the house. There is a strong probability that there may be differences of opinion in regard to this which will make it necessary to pass the bill, if it is pressed, by a division.

CANADIAN CLUB TO DISCUSS POLITICAL ISSUES HEREAFTER

Principle Adopted Respecting National Questions Coming Before That Body.

The Canadian club has adopted the principle that national questions involving political issues can be discussed and voted upon at their meeting.

The recommendation to this effect was read to the meeting of the club yesterday and commenting upon this the president, H. Milton Martin, said that it was the result of a meeting held recently, which did not represent the club, when it was contended that the club should never touch upon political questions.

Another recommendation was that all members of the club now serving with the overseas forces, should remain in good standing until the end of the club year when they have returned to Edmonton. On motion of Colonel Edwards, seconded by Dr. Tord, both of these resolutions were adopted by the meeting.

A suggestion of James McGeorge that the club have a banquet in connection with the observance of the fiftieth anniversary of Confederation was referred to the committee having charge of the arrangements for the celebration.

GERMAN AIRPLANES TAKE HEAVY TOLL

promptitude in thus manifesting sympathy with the sufferers appeared to be deeply appreciated, and he was warmly cheered as he rode slowly around. Later the king visited the hospitals.

In past cases, has been the killing of civilians, including many children. No military damage was done, as there was no military objective in the section visited. It was a case of accurate dropping of bombs when once the planes were over the city. In the east end, for instance, a bomb could have been dropped without doing damage. The bombs cut a wide circular path through the eastern part of the city, and while the raid was in progress a large number of explosives were dropped in rapid succession. The course the raiders took can easily be traced by the damaged buildings, which in many cases are close together.

In some places a whole block of buildings are lacking every window and much other damage was done. One school in the district had a lucky escape. There are 1,000 pupils in that school, and fifteen minutes after the little ones had returned to the building from recess a bomb fell where hundreds had been gathered.

Cool and Calm
There were many evidences of the coolness with which the people greeted the appearance of the raiders overhead. For instance despite reports that a raid was in progress the king proceeded with an investiture in Buckingham palace, the recipients of honors walking in and out of the palace grounds without a trace of nervousness being apparent.

For an hour after the raid the telephone system of London was swamped with telephone calls from business men who were anxious to learn the fate of their families in the suburbs. Despite the loud reports of the explosions the telephone girls stuck to their posts. There were only a few instances of any of them deserting their work and these only left for a brief period during the height of the excitement.

Court Hearing Proceeds
A case was being heard in a court when explosions were heard in the vicinity.

"I understand there is an air raid going on and that bombs are being dropped," said the justice presiding. "But I think we are safer here than anywhere else."

After a few minutes the judge announced: "I understand the raid has come out as far as this but now has

COMMERCIAL HIGH GIVES EXHIBITION

Pupils Display Skill At Closing Exercises—Prizes Awarded.

The opportunities open to the younger generation to secure an early business training were illustrated in an interesting and varied manner at the closing exercises of the Commercial High, which were carried out at the Allan Gray school last night.

There was a large gathering of students and their friends, and ample opportunity was furnished for observing the thoroughness and excellence of the work done at the commercial school. The program included demonstrations in typewriting and shorthand, spelling contests, and the presentation of awards for proficiency in the different school subjects.

History of the School
J. P. Page, headmaster at the school, gave a brief history of its working since the institution of the school in 1912 by the public school board. It is now under the jurisdiction of the department of education. Mr. Page recounted the success of its pupils in the provincial examinations, and said that out of seven in the province who had secured honors for 75 per cent of marks had come from the Commercial high school. In 1912 the enrolment of students was 28, last September there were 86. Mr. Page announced that in order to widen the scope of the school the department was instituting shorter courses of ten months' training instead of the two years now in force.

In presenting the honor commercial diplomas, W. Rea, chairman of the public school board, commented upon the value of the work done at the school and said that there was a great future before it.

Received Diplomas
The students receiving the diplomas were Iola Mitchell, Kathleen Ward, Elizabeth Buckley, Neva Thornton, Gertrude Euston and Lucille Johnston.

C. F. Race, registrar at the University of Alberta, presented the provincial championship basketball shield to the school team. This shield has been presented to the school graduates to defend in future championship games. In three years of play the school team has won 38 out of 42 games, including three championship events.

Typewriting Winner
The winners in the typewriting contests were announced by Mr. Page. There are two of these contests, one being open to all comers and the other being a school event. Only the names of those placed first and second were given, and there was a great outburst of applause when the name of Miss Winnie Martin, Edmonton's champion girl typist, was given as the winner of the open event.

The awards are given below:
Open Event
Winnie Martin—Trained at Commercial High; gross words, 1100; errors, 11; penalty, 55; net rate per minute, 106.

School Event
Lena Harrison—Trained at Commercial High; gross words, 865; errors, 12; penalty, 60; net rate per minute, 81.

Trophy is Here
Miss Martin wins for the third time and permanently the Underwood trophy, for the city championship. Misses Gamble and Harrison win the Underwood gold medals for dates of 80 words per minute, while Miss Harrison wins the medal for the city school championship. Miss Buckley wins the silver medal for a rate of 70 words per minute.

J. G. Carson, manager of the United Typewriter company, handed to Miss Martin the silver cup given as a special trophy by the Underwood company.

Miss Martin delighted the audience with an exhibition of her skill. With a memorized sentence she typed 150 words per minute; blindfolded she typed 149 words, and reading the copy as she worked the machine she succeeded in typing 117 words.

Medals awarded to the students were presented by W. G. Carpenter, superintendent of schools, and in doing so Mr. Carpenter dwelt upon the development of the work and the advantages that would accrue from the establishment of complete schools for the purpose of business training.

Winners of Medals
Medals were handed to the following:
To Dorothy Shaw, by the ex-student of the school, Miss Shaw was elected by her classmates to receive the medal, which is awarded yearly on the following basis: 50% for general ability in class work; 25% for ability in girl's athletics; and 25% for honor, integrity and punctuality.

To William F. Rowell by the ex-students of the school for obtaining the highest marks in the graduating class throughout the year.

To Miss Lena Harrison by Mr. Page for having won the title of school typewriting champion with a record of 81 words per minute.

To Jessie Buckley by the Isaac Pitman shorthand company for attaining the highest rate of speed in shorthand among the graduating class.

To Charles Anderson by the Isaac Pitman company for having obtained the highest percentage in the theory of shorthand in the first year classes. A medal, specially contributed, was also awarded to Elizabeth Elrick, who tied with Charles Anderson in the theory of shorthand.

A Spelling Contest
Students gave a demonstration of spelling. Then there were excellent demonstrations of skill in shorthand. Other items in the program included a charming folk dance by the girls' class, also a chorus by the same class, a vocal solo by Miss Marjorie McGregor, and it concluded with refreshments and inspection of commercial classrooms. Miss Lillian Lawrence was at the piano during the evening.

750,000 Single Men Between Ages Fixed For Military Service

Estimated That There Are Also 820,000 Married Men Between 45—Now Considered Likely That Second Reading of Service Bill Will Be Postponed—Leaders Will Confer as to Date.

OTTAWA, June 13.—When the house met today Sir Robert Borden said that if there was no objection on the part of the opposition the second reading of the Military Service Act would be proceeded with tomorrow.

Sir Wilfrid remarked the date suggested was a little too early for the opposition, as a number of the members on that side of the house were away. He proposed, he said, to take the matter up with the prime minister.

Sir Robert expressed the hope that when the matter was discussed between them Sir Wilfrid would be ready to fix as early a date as possible.

"Hear, hear," said Sir Wilfrid. The bill, it is expected, will come up for second reading on Monday.

Canadiana Between Ages.
Sir Edward Kemp brought down figures showing the number of Canadians available for military service between the ages of 20 and 45, according to the 1911 census. Widowers and divorced men are included as single and those whose conjugal condition are unknown are classed as married. It is estimated that there are 750,000 single men between the ages mentioned in the act. As approximately this number has been already recruited the figure for the year 1911, it is thought, reflect closely present conditions as though changes have undoubtedly occurred in individual provinces.

Between the ages of 20 and 45 there are 760,463 single men, 823,096 married. By province are divided as follows:

Pr. Ed. Island 8,051
Nova Scotia 42,667
New Brunswick 28,056
Quebec 143,480
Ontario 243,050
Manitoba 55,955
Saskatchewan 81,814
Alberta 64,283
British Columbia 88,720
Yukon 5,062
N.W. Territories 722

The house went into supply estimates of the department and commerce.

SAYS MILLIONS WILL STARVE NEXT WINTER

Dr. Robertson Tells of Great Food Shortage — Pays Tribute To France.

"I think that millions will be starved to death next winter, despite the best that we can do," such was the startling and impressive announcement which was made in all solemnity by Dr. J. W. Robertson to the members of the Canadian Club, when meeting at the Macdonald hotel Wednesday.

"One of the most versatile men that we have met," said H. Milton Martin, chairman, when introducing Dr. Robertson, who he added, when last at Edmonton, talked to them of agriculture and technical school work. He was now going to tell of the work of the Red Cross and of what he had seen of its doings at the front.

Dr. Robertson did tell of what he had seen at the front, but first of all said that he wished to draw an outline of the situation, after which they could draw their own conclusions whether they would take a greater part in the war than they had before. And his words were terrible in their import.

"We are not thinking of the war yet," said the doctor, "it has not its grip on us, we only give a little leisure time to war things."

"The food situation at the present time," added the speaker, "is the gravest of all situations of the war since the battle of the Marne."

"The danger is from lack of food for the allies and the danger is not only enough to sustain the civil population of the Allies," continued Dr. Robertson, and he asked his hearers to concentrate on the idea of economizing food and preventing waste so that more could be spared for the Allies. He pointed out that in the States they were now carrying on a campaign for the use of corn bread, instead of wheat bread, because otherwise they would have no wheat to spare for overseas. He placed emphasis on the fact that the crop in Canada was less than that of the year before, and that the greatest efforts in production of food, and economy in food.

No remedy till 1919.

And no one, said Dr. Robertson, thought that the situation could be more than ameliorated until the harvest of 1919.

How could they avoid waste? Gather the people together and tell them what they had to do. How they could do it. He said that in the States they had substituted food which were not adapted for the use of the armies. There was one thing, said the speaker, he did commend them to do, and that was to cut out instead of wheat, Alberta was an oatmeal province, he knew that. It would have to be done, because there would be no men or machinery available for the war effort at present, and each province would have to be self-sustaining.

Wanted to Start Thinking.

Dr. Robertson said that he made these few statements in order to start them thinking, and if they went into this work under the enthusiasm of public service, it would save them much hardship now and perhaps dire poverty after peace had been won.

Proceeding to speak of his visit to the area of war, Dr. Robertson paid a wonderful tribute to France, and the marvelous devotion with which she is prosecuting the war.

No Decadence in France.

Dr. Robertson made his address a series of mental pictures, which he tried to place before his hearers, and France, he said, was now a great woman with her sleeves turned up, fighting to preserve the liberties and lives of her children. There could have been no decadence about the French, said the speaker, they could not have a nation behaving so great as they were doing now, unless they had been great before.

He pictured how the women were working at the munition-making machines. A great woman painter in four months learned to work a machine which usually took a man three years, but her great brain learned the work in four months. A foreman said to him: "You can't buy labor like this, but we got it for France."

The women worked the fields, and last year cultivated, reaped and harvested four-fifths of a large crop.

The women of the organization of the front were touched upon by the doctor, he using as an illustration the fact that when looking round he saw armies and myriads of the Allies' soldiers, yet he knew that as surely as the day came, that all these men would be served with their noon-day lunch.

Work of Canadian Hospitals.

The excellence of the Canadian hospitals and the reputation that they had won among the Allies, was commended upon, and the speaker said that he could best compare with the message from a French soldier, whose life had been saved by an infusion of blood given by a Canadian soldier: "I go better now, I thank you and I thank Canada through you."

Fine Patriotic Record of A Family at Marlboro

Five stalwart sons given to the service of King and Country. That is the patriotic record of R. J. Goode, of Marlboro, Alberta. It is a record that will take a lot of beating, too. Mr. Goode is pardonably proud of what his sons are doing and Canada is quite as proud of the manner in which the Goode family has responded to the high call of duty. When it is understood that the family are also in khaki it will be realized that an example has been set that the rest of the country might well emulate.

The picture which is published here with shows Mr. Goode seated in the centre of the family group. He came to Alberta from Ireland five years ago and is now one of the most loyal and devoted of Canadian citizens. Starting from the left, in the order named are: Battalion Sergeant-Major Joseph H. Goode, of the 4th battalion, who went away with the 16th battalion, under Lieut.-Col. McKinnery; Sergt. William Goode, of the 21st battalion; Sergt. R. J. Goode, formerly with the 6th and since transferred to the 4th; Sergt. James Goode, who enlisted with the 21st and was transferred to the 8th construction battalion; and Sergt.

John Goode, who also signed on with the Sportsmen and went to the 5th with his brother James. All these boys worked at the Portland Cement plant prior to enlisting. Another brother, 16 years of age, is at home with his parents. One of Mr. Goode's brothers-in-law, Sergt. Major Pte. S. J. Gross, was recently reported in the casualty lists to have been wounded. He is a native of Great Yarmouth, England, and is one of five brothers who volunteered for service. Four of them are with the Imperial army. Sergt. Major Gross is a veteran of the South African war and was promoted on the field from lance corporal to sergeant. He was wounded in the hand and very nearly died of enteric fever in South Africa. He was given both the King's and Queen's medals. He came to this country four years ago and has since enlisted in the military service. He was a sergeant at once on account of his being a South African veteran. He went overseas about a year ago and was made drill instructor with another battalion after his own unit was broken up. He reverted to the ranks as a private in order to get to the front. He went through most of the fighting on the Somme without getting a scratch, but on April 8th, in the capture of Vimy ridge, he was wounded in the thigh and is now in hospital at Etaples, France.

LIET. DAVIES WON MILITARY CROSS BY DARING ACTION

Former Principal of Highlands Public School Wounded a Second Time.

Lieut. Stanley J. Davies, formerly principal of Highlands public school, has been reported in the casualty lists as being wounded. This is the second time his name has appeared. Some time ago, as a result of his actions in the battle of the Somme, Lieut. Davies was awarded the military cross.

The Military Gazette contained the following regarding Lieut. Davies' bravery: "Organizing an attack of seventy-five other ranks, including bombers, he bombed down 200 yards of enemy trenches, killing and wounding large numbers of the enemy and capturing fifty prisoners; showing courage and aggressiveness and proper appreciation of the actions in a difficult situation."

Lieutenant Davies left Edmonton with the 51st battalion and was transferred in England to another battalion. He has two uncles residing in the city, viz. Alf James, 107th avenue, and G. T. P.

E. D. & B. C. RLY. OPENS OFFICE ON JASPER AVENUE

Occupy Quebec Bank Building — Express Company Will Have Headquarters There

A new ticket office has been established on Jasper avenue east by the E. D. & B. C. railway. The office is in the large room formerly occupied by the Quebec bank. In connection, the business of the Central Canada express will be carried on.

This new arrangement will prove of great advantage to the north-bound travellers as the office is also to carry on a general information bureau regarding the north country. The large front window will be dressed with scenes and products of the north and literature covering the subject will be kept for distribution.

The express connections of the company now enable the people of the Macleod river country to safely order goods from Edmonton and depend on their delivery as the boat companies operating on the Peace are carefully taking care of the northern end of the business.

Tickets are also being sold at the new office good for passage on the D. A. Thomas, the big Peace River steamer.

STREET CAR BURNED THROUGH TROLLEY WIRE BREAKING

Singular Accident on High Level Belt Route—Conductor's Narrow Escape.

Commencing from contact with a broken trolley wire fire gutted street car No. 32 at the corner of 109th street and MacKay avenue at 8:20 o'clock Wednesday night. The car was running south on 109th street, bound over the high level belt line route, and when at the corner of MacKay avenue the trolley wire broke, falling on top of the car and catching on one of the rear lamps. About a dozen passengers were on board and they got off as soon as the car was brought to a stop. The value of the car was given as $7,000. Only the machinery was saved.

Conductor W. S. Crampton (193), while standing on the pavement took hold of the live wire, which was dangling from the lamp, and carried it to the front end of the car. He attempted to throw it over the car and when doing so the wire came in contact with some metal and ignited the car. In a few minutes the car was a mass of flames. Motorman R. Turner (174) was still at his post and when the fire commenced he was enveloped in flames, but was not injured.

The fire department was soon on the scene, but by this time the fire had become too hot to handle and before they could get it under control the woodwork of the car was damaged beyond repair.

About 9 o'clock car No. 44, running on the low level belt line route, coasted past the broken portion of the trolley and pushed the wrecked car down the grade to a switch near the bridge and after the repair car had attended to the broken trolley they took the car back to the barn.

Service was continued about 9:30 p. m.

CONSERVATIVES NOW CLAIM LAC STE. ANNE BY MAJORITY OF TEN

Lac Ste. Anne constituency, with all polls heard from, gives the seat to Russell Barker, Conservative, by a majority of ten. The riding has been wavering in the balance ever since the election. The Conservatives at first claimed it by a tremendous majority. Then the Liberals began to shrink until Ralph Barker, the Liberal candidate, declared that from the figures available he had been elected by one vote. Latest reports now announce the other swing toward the Conservatives. A recount may be demanded.

"There is a surplus over all charges of $1,919.75 and a net surplus to date of $10,121.35," says Superintendent Lowry in the May report of the telephone department.

The superintendent added that there was a gain of 52 subscribers for the month and a gain in telephones of 69.

He reminds the commissioners that nothing has been done to date in connection with commission on long distance business originated by our subscribers in the city and collected by the long distance government telephones.

The matter should be taken up at an early date and some decision arrived at.

The lists for the semi-annual issue of the telephone directory are now being compiled. The lists close on June 24th and the new directory will be ready for issue on April 1st. There will be about 11,000 copies printed.

Crops Coming on Satisfactorily In All Parts of the Province

Growth in Past Week Has Been Very Good, Say Correspondents of Department of Agriculture—Outlook is Very Encouraging For Big Yield—Live Stock Doing Fairly Well

Special week-end reports from correspondents of the department of agriculture indicate a satisfactory condition of crops and live stock. There has been no frost reported since June 8th and the growth has been very good, particularly in the southern part of the province. Plenty of moisture and growing showers, with warmer weather in most places has compensated largely for lateness of the season. All reports show live stock doing fairly well and the outlook for the whole province is very encouraging.

Following are the reports from eight central points:

Spirit River—Fine spring rains have put wheat in excellent condition, but heavy rains May 13th to 17th, and May 25th to 26th, retarded the oat seeding. Wheat generally shows 4 inches above ground; oats about 2 inches. Growth of grass is heavy and already sufficient moisture to guarantee a heavy hay crop.

Peace River—Weather during past week cool and cloudy with heavy rain. Heavier acreage than before seen to wheat and oats. Seed-bed well worked up. Wheat showing some inches. Prospects for grain in most places have improved. Holdings of live stock; most importations being of better grade cattle. Feed prospects for ensuing season good.

Edmonton—Most farmers in this district have finished seeding; still a few seeders busy and green feed. Wheat 5 inches high; oats 4 inches. Barley 2 inches, and rye 11 inches high. Plenty of rain. Outlook favorable.

Stony Plain—Sufficient moisture. Temperature low for good growth but crops looking well. Twenty per cent. barley and sixty per cent. green feed to sow. Grass backward. Stock raising poor.

Vermilion—Weather dry and windy. Crop recovering from frost and making fair growth. Live stock in good condition, some blacking in cattle and in horses.

Sedgewick—Wheat looks well. Barley seeding up 4 inches. Oats and early seedling all finished. No rain during past week of any account; crops not suffering yet, but hay crop needs rain.

Charlevoix—Weather has cleared and is warmer. Wheat early seeded looks fine and commencing to tiller. Oats nearly seeded; barley some seedling to do yet. Roots and corn recently seeded. Live stock doing well.

Cardston—Weather during last week most favorable for seeding; crops growing well. Grass abundant. Stock doing well. Good rain Friday night and until noon Saturday will do considerable good. Weather much warmer and conditions generally favorable.

The superintendent added that there was a gain of 52 subscribers for the month and a gain in telephones of 69.

He reminds the commissioners that nothing has been done to date in connection with commission on long distance business originated by our subscribers in the city and collected by the long distance government telephones.

The matter should be taken up at an early date and some decision arrived at.

COLLECTIONS FOR PATRIOTIC FUND DECREASE

Disbursements Per Month Double of Amount Being Received In North Alberta.

The monthly statement issued by the Northern Alberta branch of the Canadian Patriotic Fund for May shows that during the month $24,398.51 was collected from all sources while $10,413.75 was disbursed in the same period. During the present fiscal year from September 1st, 1916, to May 31st, 1917, the total collections amount to $230,064.88, while the total disbursements amount to $427,755.04.

2473 Families Get Aid

At present there are 2473 families receiving assistance comprising 7043 individuals. This represents a decrease of 43 families dividing the money. It is the toll of Vimy Ridge and the great British offensive of the last few weeks—the sacrifice the women of Edmonton and Northern Alberta are making these days.

Subscriptions Fall Off.

Subscriptions fell off over $4000 during the month of May. In the City of Edmonton alone there are over 500 subscribers in arrears, while in many country districts collections have ceased altogether. Thus, in the months of the greatest offensive, achievement and sacrifice of the men at the front, the supporters of the Patriotic Fund at home are marking time.

Was Anaemic

For Over a Year.

Anemia, or blood turning to water, is a condition of the heart becoming damaged, and if the heart becomes weakened it cannot pump the blood as it should. As a result the blood becomes impoverished, and it loses its nourishing qualities. The face becomes pale and thin, and the lips bloodless. There is a weakness, tiredness and loss of weight.

When those suffering from thin or watery blood start taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills they can see a change from the outset.

Every dose introduces into the blood those vital elements necessary to make it rich and red. The pale cheeks take on the rosy hue of health, the weight increases, and the whole being thrills with a new life.

Mrs. R. J. Grey, Fredericton, N.B., writes: "When I was a girl working at general house work I overtaxed my strength and became completely run down. For over a year I was very bad with anemia. A friend told me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills so I got a box and when it was done I felt and looked so much better I decided to get six more. When I had taken them I had gained not only in strength, but in flesh and color, and best of all was good health."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50¢ a box; three boxes for $1.25, at all druggists or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PERSONALS, MEETINGS, CLUB ACTIVITIES, WEDDINGS AND SOCIAL EVENTS.

Mrs. T. J. Watts arrived home Tuesday from England. Her husband, Staff Sergeant Watts, is located at Hastings, England.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacDonald and family are spending the month in Banff. Mr. MacDonald returned for the day and reports having a fine time.

Mrs. E. C. Emery entertained very informally at tea on Tuesday for Miss Helen Dawson. Only a few of Miss Dawson's girl friends were present. As it was a lovely afternoon tea was served in the summer house in the garden. Mrs. Emery is a charming hostess and the afternoon was spent very happily.

Mrs. Edmiston and Miss Gertrude Edmiston are out at Clover Bar for a few days visiting Miss Edmiston.

Mrs. H. W. Ross and family are planning to leave the city in two weeks for Vancouver, where they will visit Mrs. Ross's sister-in-law, Mrs. Taylor, for the summer. Mr. Ross is going out about the first of August for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Steven Taylor, of Sussex, N. B., arrived in the city on Monday and are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. H. C. Taylor, 103th street.

Mrs. Denny Hogan and family are leaving this week to spend the summer at their ranch, Birch Lake, Innisfree.

Word has been received in the city that Lieutenant Charles G. Flavin, well known in Edmonton, who was Assistant King's Printer when the war broke out, has been wounded "somewhere in France." While the precise nature of his injury is not stated, it is said particulars are to follow in a few days. Mr. Flavin resigned his post at parliament buildings to enlist as a private in the Irish Guards, and was subsequently transferred to another battalion. As it is "Charlie" has only been at the front a few weeks, and his friends will watch with eager interest for further news of his condition.

If one is at all interested in Canadian history, Indian costumes, Indian customs, children's dances, historical characters in the living, then make it a point to attend the Pageant on the 14th and 15th of June. There one will see Columbus just as he is pictured, Wolfe, too, who captured Canada in 1759, Frontenac and his Indian allies; Gaspe, Montcalm, Jacques Cartier, and other characters. It will be most interesting and entertaining as well as very instructive, besides being for a good cause. There will also be good music. The affair is given by the pupils of Oliver public school in the Empire theatre and the proceeds go toward the Military Y. M. C. A.

Newa has been received in Edmonton of the death in Guelph of Mrs. Kenneth MacLean on June 6, the funeral taking place at that city June 11th. N. D. MacLean, of the legal firm of Short, Cross, MacLean, Appleton and Laidlaw, Edmonton, is a son.

Mrs. John T. Ross will be at home on Friday evening from 7.30 to 10 o'clock at 10612 106th street to the many friends of her aunt, Mrs. Spencer, and her sister, Miss Edith Burns. Mrs. Spencer, who has spent the past three months in Edmonton, leaves on the first of the week for Moose Jaw, and Miss Burns is in the city for a few days en route from New Zealand to Ontario.

A fine concert was given at the Strathcona military hospital last night which was greatly enjoyed by the veterans. Those who took part were Miss Helen McLeod, Miss Jean O. Plante, Miss Clara May Bell and R. W. Drake.

To Mrs. Louise Crummy McKenney, the provincial president of the W. C. T. U., a letter was drafted of congratulation on her success at the first woman legislator to be elected in the British Empire, at a meeting of the Federated W. C. T. U. on Wednesday afternoon. The time, outside of that used for the regular routine business, was devoted to the arrangements for the provincial convention to be held in the city in September.

At the meeting of the Highlands W. C. T. U. on Wednesday a letter from the Red Cross was read asking the members of the union to celebrate confederation by raising money for the Red Cross. This was discussed and it was decided to have a Tag Day in the Highlands for this purpose on the second of July.

Mrs. Robert Cockburn, Dr. Del. A. C. Harwood and Vernon Barford assisted most charmingly at the "Evening of Song" given by the pupils of Miss Jean Forsythe in the Palm room of the Macdonald hotel Wednesday evening. There was a small attendance but the recital was above the average of similar affairs given in Edmonton. Miss Forsythe accompanied her seven pupils who gave a creditable performance indeed. Mrs. Harwood accompanied her husband delightfully which added considerably to the well chosen and admirably sung numbers.

A very pleasing incident distinguished an informal social gathering of the returned soldiers and their friends at the veterans' clubrooms last night. Mrs. Margaret MacDonald, commanding the Women's Volunteer Reserve, was presented with a handsome oil painting of herself in recognition of the interest which she has taken in the returned soldiers and the hard work she has done in behalf of the veterans and of the club.

The presentation was made in a few happy words by Secretary C. B. Rhinoceros, and Mrs. MacDonald, although taken by surprise, managed to make a suitable acknowledgment of the gift. The ladies of the reserve attended in a body, together with a number of ladies and gentlemen who are always welcome at the club rooms. Refreshments followed a brief entertainment program, to which Miss Laura M. Millan, Miss Florence McKay and Mrs. G. A. Barker of Barker's orchestra contributed.

Mrs. L. N. Allyn received a telegram addressed to her step-daughter, Dr. Jessie Allyn, Wednesday morning from the Rajah of Patnam, India, inquiring for the safe arrival of Dr. Allyn, who is a medical mission in India at present on furlough, and on her way to Edmonton. She has been the guest of her sister in Calgary for ten days, and is expected in the city Saturday night. In the meantime the telegram has been forwarded to Dr. Jessie Allyn as a reply was requested. Besides inquiring after the welfare of the doctor the Rajah states that his wife and baby, whom she had been attending, are well. Dr. Allyn is very highly thought of at her mission station and the Rajah particularly has taken a great interest in her and her work, having already given twenty thousand dollars to the hospital work as an appreciation of the doctors' attendance on his wife when the children were born. Besides many generous gifts to the medical missionary work Dr. Allyn has received personal gifts. When she left on furlough the last time the Rajah gave her a beautiful ring with three emeralds and twenty-nine diamonds. This time he gave an exquisite silver tea service as an expression of appreciation. Dr. Allyn will speak on her work on Tuesday at the McDonald Memorial church.

The concert and ice cream festival held in the Norwood Methodist church under the auspices of the Sunday school on Tuesday evening was a splendid success. A large crowd, a fine program and a plentiful supply of ice cream, strawberries and cake were the contributing factors. The following program was rendered: Selection by orchestra; vocal solos by Misses Marjorie McGregor, L. Cline, R. Elliott, M. Lorne, S. Slaght, and Miss Edna Young and C. G. Elliott. The literary part of the evening was provided by Miss Myrtle Field and Mr. Jones, each of whom read two much appreciated numbers. The orchestra was very generous, and during the intervals, when the audience was in the basement, a number of candies served there, provided a number of excellent selections. Mr. Porter has succeeded in gathering together a fine orchestra, of which the Sunday school is properly appreciative and justly proud. The proceeds of the evening amounted to a trifling over $50 and will be devoted to paying for the new piano.

The garden fete held by the W. A. of St. Andrew's church at the residence of Mrs. Ponsford yesterday afternoon and evening was a most successful function, both socially and financially. The musical program was kindly contributed by Mesdames Seager, Swaffield, Robinson and Mesdames Malcom, Grieve, Swaffield and Barnes. A pleasing feature of the afternoon was the gift of a life membership of the diocesan board to Mrs. Ponsford, also one to Mr. Sidney Ellis by their fellow members of the auxiliary. The bishop, assisted by Mrs. Melrose, president of the diocesan board, made the presentation in the presence of a large number of friends. About 250 paid the entrance fee and the sum of $102 was realized through the sale of home cooking, needlework, candy, competitions, afternoon tea and ice cream. Mrs. Courtney won the cake guessing competition and received the cake as the prize. The bean guessing competition was won by Mrs. G. A. Robinson, the prize being a fitted mahogany nut bowl. The smelling, tasting and sightseeing competitions were won by Mrs. Turner, who received an apron, and Mr. Irwin, who received a book. Tennis, croquet and games were indulged in. The beautiful weather and lovely grounds making the party a most delightful event.

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary multifield coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get multifield coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

2. What is the best way to water a hanging basket?
3. How can a Panama hat be cleaned?
4. What can be substituted for soap when washing the face?
5. What effect is camphor said to have if used too frequently on the face?
6. How can basting stitches be always plainly seen?

ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S INQUIRIES.

1. Tea stains, when freshly made, can be removed with salt and boiling water. If of long standing, use glycerin and lukewarm water, renewing the glycerin until stains disappear.
2. Grease stains can be removed from silks and satins by the use of a few drops of rectified spirits of wine. After applying it, cover the material with a linen cloth, then apply a hot iron and rub finally with a little sulphur. In this way the lustre of the material will not be affected.
3. To remove tar, apply turpentine.

Use of Evaporated Milk

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—I have heard that a saving can be effected by the use of evaporated milk mixed with other milk or water. I don't know which it is. Can you tell me whether this is true and how to prepare it for use?

(Mrs.) W. Yes, you will find a very good substitute for fresh milk can be prepared as follows: To one can of evaporated milk, costing 12 cents in most stores, add one and one-half quarts of boiling water, stirring in slowly. Then add two level teaspoonfuls of sugar and one level teaspoonful of salt. When cool you will find this is richer than much of the milk you buy and it will keep longer. Which latter is certainly an advantage, particularly with the warm weather coming on.

Care of Boy's Complexion

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Will you please print how to remove pimples and blackheads from the face of a boy of about 16 years of age?

A. J. T. Cleanse the face thoroughly with warm water and liquid green soap. Then, after squeezing it by holding hot cloths on it for several minutes. Many of the smaller blackheads will come out of their own accord, but keep longer, which latter is certainly an advantage, particularly with the warm weather coming on. A blackhead instrument which comes for the purpose is useful. An eraser should then be applied to close the pores. Many boys of this age are subject to eruptions of the skin, and the most efficacious way of curing them is to regulate the diet, to bathe regularly and take daily baths, rubbing the skin briskly when drying.

Directions for Making Otpourri

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—You have given me information before. I wonder if you will tell me how to go about making a rose jar, or otpourri, as it is called? With this backward season, I know, of course, that roses will not be ready to gather for some time to come, but want to be ready when they do bloom.

(Mrs.) WILLIAM T. The flowers should be gathered in the early morning, while still fragrant with the dew. Toss them lightly on a table in a cool, dry place and let them lie until the dew has evaporated, then put them into a large glass jar and sprinkle salt over every half-inch layer of the petals. Add the first lot from day to day, until enough have been gathered, then let them stand for ten days after the last have been put in, stirring every morning, but otherwise keeping them tightly covered.

Prepare one-quarter ounce of mace, one-half ounce of cloves, all coarsely ground or pounded in a mortar, one-half of a grated nutmeg, one-half ounce cinnamon broken into bits, one ounce of powderedorris root, and one-quarter pound of dried lavender flowers. Mix these together in a bowl, or double the quantity if you have many rose leaves; then fill the rose jar with alternate layers of this and the petals. As a jar is a count of filling put a few drops of oil of rose, geranium, bitter almonds and orange flower on the layers, and over the whole pour one ounce of eau de cologne. Mix these together in a bowl, and from time to time tuberoses, heliotrope or some other sweet-smelling flower may be added.

AGED NATIVE OF PEACE RIVER AND DIRECT DESCENDENT OF "PAS CAP" DIES AT NORTH HOME

Wife of Alexander McKenzie, Veteran Hudson's Bay Trader, Passes Away At Age Of 76 Years—Represented Best Type Of Natives Of North Country.

(Special to the Bulletin.)

Peace River, June 12.—Mrs. Alexander McKenzie, wife of Alexander McKenzie the veteran Hudson's Bay trader, died last Sunday at her home seven miles up the Peace from here. She was a native of the Peace and seventy years of age. Mrs. McKenzie represented the best type of the natives and possessed a wonderful mind in which was stored a rich fund of knowledge regarding the folk love and history of her people.

She was a direct descendant of one of Peace River's romantic characters about whom nothing has ever been printed but the natives will tell you much when you have won their confidence. "Pas Cap," the good woman whom Alexander McKenzie the explorer, found married to Pabst Basson, a French-Canadian guide and trapper, living at the mouth of the Smoky in 1793. Basson, some fifteen years before, when at the employ of Pabst Basson, the Athabasca free trader, found a young Cree girl lying on the banks of the Little Slave River, sick with the dreadful disease, smallpox. She had been abandoned by her people who knew no remedy for the plague.

Picking the girl up he took her to the trading post near where Saw-It-now stands and paid for her keep while he returned to Montreal. In a year he returned and finding her recovered, though terribly marked with the disease and blinded in one eye, he married her. In time he moved to the Peace, where for fifty years Pas cap (meaning blind in one eye) was the medium through which the natives obtained justice from the white man. They will tell you to this day of her wonderful ministrations to the afflicted and her bravery in interfering when justice was threatened. She was

The bride wore a pretty hand embroidered gown of silk tulle, with bridal veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations, sweet peas and wild flowers decorated the house, the color scheme being pink and white. A number of the guests accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Slaght to the C. P. R. depot, after lunch had been served, when their left and showers of confetti and good wishes for their future home at Galahad, Alta.

Mrs. Sargeon expects to be joined at Banff by Mrs. Cushing and Miss Small, both of Edmonton, who will accompany her on the trip. Mrs. Sargeon will be gone some time returning by the Arrow Head Lake.

The Daily Poem

SONG OF THE ALLIED MEN.

Hear the trumpet-call resounding
Over hill and vale and sea,
Mustering true and faithful heroes
To the standard of the free;
Rousing courage, strength and valor
To defense of Liberty;
Calling to the Allied Men:

"Arise! Arise! Ye champions of Light!
Arise! Arise! In all your conquering might!"

Bear Freedom's banner high,
See deathless glory agh,
Shout aloud the battle-cry:
"Country, God and Right!"

Hark! The sound of war-drums rolling
The assembly of the brave
To avenge deep wrong and infamy,
To succour and to save;
And through the anguish darkened
Peals a message wave on wave.

The mighty host is marshaled,
And a line of flaming death,
Drives the ruthless despot backward
With victorious withering breath;
And o'er the tumult rises,
Clear and strong, a call of faith.

Now the tyrant Hate is fleeing,
From its throne of terror hurled;
Peace and Honor rise triumphant
On a liberated world.

Down Freedom's glorious pathway
Nations march with flag unfurled.
To the song of the Allied men:

"Arise! Arise! Ye champions of Light!
Arise! Arise! In all your conquering might!"

Bear Freedom's banner high,
See deathless glory agh,
Shout aloud the battle-cry:
"Country, God, and Right!"

Corns Stop Hurting, Then They Lift Out With Fingers

No pain or soreness! Corns and calluses just shrivel up and lift off. It's foolish to let a corn ache twice.

A noted Cincinnati authority discovered a new ether compound and called it freezeone and it now can be had in little bottles for a few cents from any drug store.

You simply apply a few drops of freezeone upon a tender corn or painful callus and instantly the cornness disappears, then shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can just lift it off with the fingers.

No pain, not a bit of soreness, either when applying freezeone or afterwards and it doesn't even irritate the skin.

Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also toughened calluses just shrivel up and lift off so easy. It is wonderful! It works like a charm. Try it!

Women should keep freezeone on their dressers and never let a corn ache twice. If a corn starts hurting just apply a drop. The pain stops instantly.

Genuine freezeone is only sold in little bottles packed in a round, wood case.

A NEW IDEA IN TABLOID COMEDIES

In "The Movie Girl" at the Pantages theatre this week audiences are given a peep into the life of our motion picture favorite. The scene is laid in a studio where "Mary Pickford" appears in her position as leading woman. She says she cannot act, but she can —. Were we to tell you what she says she can do it would spoil the fun. Four sets are made in the studio and we see pictures being taken in Honolulu, a la Urban, and on the great Arabian Desert. There are four complete changes of scenery in full view of the audience. Intermingling with the bright comedy are light, tuneful musical numbers led by Jessie Baker, last seen here with "The Elopers." The chorus is pretty and pleasing to look upon and have furnished gorgeous costumes. The book and music were provided by Frederick Herenden, and the set was staged under the personal direction of Loria J. Howard, with dances by Philip Fain.

"A Breath of Old Virginia" is the title of a Civil War sketch entirely different from anything in the war sketch line that has ever been seen here. Holmes and LaVere know the significance and meaning of vaudeville novelties as demonstrated in "The Movie Girl" and "The Elopers." Morris and Allen, two Hebrew comedians with a snappy line of parodies, and the Rhondas Trio have a distinctive bicycle act. The Universal News Weekly and a good one reel comedy start the show off well.

"THE WHIP" MIGHTY FILM SPECTACLE

The great and mighty melodramatic photoplay "The Whip" begins an engagement of one week commencing next Monday at the Empire theatre. The story of "The Whip" has been taken from the famous melodrama of the same name which had the longest run of theatrical attractions ever presented; the picture is the most elaborate and realistic of all photodramas and contains under 300 thrilling scenes, intermingled with one of the most beautiful of all love stories ever written.

APPLES, ORANGES, FIGS AND PRUNES

Are The Four Fruits Used in Making "Fruit-a-tives"

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is the only medicine in the world that is made from the juices of fresh ripe fruits. Thus, it is manifestly unfair to say, "I won't take Fruit-a-tives because I have tried other remedies and they did me no good." On the other hand, the fact that "Fruit-a-tives" is entirely different from any other preparation in the world, is just why you should give it a fair trial, in any trouble of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys or Skin. "Fruit-a-tives" is composed of the active principle of fruit and the greatest nerve tonic ever discovered. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

VIRGINIA PEARSON COMING TO THE FORE

Virginia Pearson already has come into the fore of motion picture stars, her rare type of distinctive beauty combining in her success with a dramatic instinct rarely found in so young an actress. In her role in the William Fox photodrama "Hypocrisy," an expose of the shams of society, which is at the Empress today, Friday and Saturday, she equals her first appearance under Mr. Fox in the picture play "Blazing Love." Her years of successful stage training have made her movie work unusually perfect and pleasing. Miss Pearson's part is that of a young society woman, who, through her fondness for gambling, falls into the pitfall of ruin. Her story is a tragedy of love, parts taken by Alfred Swenson and John Webb Dillon, one of whom she marries. Her years of stage training have made her movie work unusually perfect and pleasing. MAJESTY—Wm. Nigh, the star of the Metro Feature "Life's Shadows" and who also is well known to many Edmonton theatre goers, does some excellent work in this latest Metro. Irene Hawley is also in the cast and does some excellent work. It is a drama of today's society and the story of a young girl who has been wronged. Her high station forward as her protector and insists to the father of the young man that the wrong be righted and if it is not his position can the stage and screen do better. Through many tense situations he follows the wrong doers and almost gives up hope of seeing what he has been told when suddenly the matter is brought to a climax. There are five big reels to the play and the story is too long to tell of telling here, it will be shown for the last time today.

"LURE OF ALASKA" LAST TIME TONIGHT

The "Lure of Alaska," which will be seen at the Empire theatre tonight for the last time, is a motion picture lecture. For those who do not know what form of entertainment this is, it might be well to call to mind the Rainey African pictures and the story of Dr. Sugden has worked along similar lines in Alaska and that he is presenting a motion picture which is equally full of interest, thrills and excitement. In the Rainey picture the animals of the jungle were photographed at the point of the camera. In his picture, Dr. Sugden is often photographed doing deeds that needed all the courage on the part of the actor. Yet Dr. Sugden went through many a desperate struggle to secure his pictures, and it is just as dangerous to stay in the midst of a raging forest as it is to make pictures of flaming trees so close that even the audience seems to feel the blistering that nearly destroyed the camera. In the picture, a slow moving hippopotamus or rhino. It was a battle with icy waters, lashed with heat that Dr. Sugden went through when he made his pictures of the birth of an iceberg, for the berg, crashing upon the sea, under the pressure in which Dr. Sugden was working and sent camera and photographer into an icy bath. As he also has been wronged, Dr. Sugden relates stories to tell how they were taken and made and one has the double interest of thrilling pictures and stories such as only an old sea-faring man and prospector can be. One might add, "and fisherman," for Dr. Sugden includes pictures of jumping salmon that make the mouth of every fisherman water. It is seldom that such pictures as Dr. Sugden brings are made at all, and when they are it is more than good fortune that the man who made them is able to accompany them and describe them so that the audience gets all of the original thrill.

STREET RAILWAY STRIKE TIES UP VANCOULVER LINES

Men Demand Increased Wages To Meet High Cost of Living

Vancouver, B.C., June 13.—A strike of street railway conductors and motormen this morning tied up all the lines of Vancouver, North Vancouver and New Westminster, owned by the British Columbia Electric Railway. Not a wheel turned and the company made no effort to take the cars out of the barns. The dispute between the company and its men came to a head as quickly as the public was unprepared for the turn of events this morning. Hundreds of jitneys did a thriving business, but there were thousands of early workers who had to walk in from their homes in outlying districts.

Recently the union presented a demand for an increase of wages to meet the cost of living. The company offered a compromise which was not accepted. So far there has been no disturbance.

U.S. MERCHANTMAN DESTROYS ENEMY SUB

At an Atlantic Port, June 13.—Destruction of a German submarine by the American steamship Kroenland was reported by the merchantman upon her arrival today in American harbor. Her officers refused to discuss the encounter except to say that by agile maneuvering the Kroenland rammed and sank the U-boat shortly after two of the underwater boats had attacked the merchantman, one from either side. The Kroenland lost a blade from her propeller.

What Civil Service Has Done in the War

The Civilian, the publication of the Civil Service Federation of Canada, gives statistics showing that up to the 1st of June, 1917, the enlistments from the Canadian public service in Ottawa exceed 981 and outside of Ottawa 2,327, a total of 3,308. It is stated that the record is incomplete because a number of departments had not reported new enlistments for some time previous to the date stated and two had never furnished complete lists. Further, no enlistments which took place subsequent to the mention of conscription in the House of Commons by the Premier are counted. If the record were to be completed to the date stated, enlistments from the service in Ottawa would be found to exceed 1000 and from the remainder of the service to exceed 4,000, making a grand total of 5,000 men free and voluntarily enlisted for active service. More than a thousand men of the Canadian Government railway staffs who have enlisted are not included in the figures.
The casualty list is incomplete, but includes 219 dead, 280 wounded, and 15 prisoners, and a large number missing.
Among the honors are distinguished service order, 15; military crosses, 15.

Could Not Lift
Stick of Wood
Would Almost Faint From Severe Pain in Back — Doctors Could Not Get the Kidneys Set Right.

Benton, N. B., May 17.—A great many people suffer the results of deranged kidneys and do not understand the cause of trouble or the way to obtain cure. The writer of this letter suffered excruciating pains in the back and in vain his physician tried to cure him. For some reason or other his medicines did not have the desired effect.

Mr. Olte's brother was a merchant selling, among other medicines, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and he heard his customers telling about how they were cured of kidney derangements by their use. This led to Mr. Olte putting them to the test, with the splendid results reported in this letter.

Mr. E. C. Olte, Benton, Carleton County, N.B., writes: "I am glad to let you know how much your medicine has done for me. I suffered from my kidneys, which at one time were so bad I could not lift a stick of wood without getting on my knees, and then would almost faint from the pain in my back. I consulted a doctor about it, and he gave me some medicine, but it did not help me. My brother, who is a merchant, and carries all your medicines, advised me to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I got one box, and they helped me, so I got another one and kept on until I had taken five boxes, which cured me. I have had no trouble with my back since, and am never without Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in the house. Last summer I also suffered from piles. I used three boxes of your Ointment, and it cured them. I can certainly recommend Dr. Chase's Pills and Ointment."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, 5 for $1.00, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

the opinion of several dozen servative papers, Sir Wilfrid rier deserves to be most heart- abused for refusing to enter cabinet and to thereby impose a the Liberal party a share of odium which attaches to the ernment headed by Sir Robert len. Such unanimous, effusive even abusive anxiety to share legacy with rank outsiders is common among the heirs to estate. It bespeaks a know- ledge that when the debts come paid those who have no in- est in the property will be the unate ones. So long as the len Government had standing credit and could "carry on," suggestion of coalition was ted as a piece of gross impu- sence, a request for a share in a t of glory and more substan- things which belonged exclu- ly to the Conservative-Nation- party. Only when the Gov- ernment became bankrupt did this fortunate desire to divide the ors and emoluments with the ers begin to appear. This found generosity is addressed to unresponsive quarter. Liberal party is not hunger- and thirsting to be known in ory as participants in the tage the Borden Government piled up for the embarrass- t of those who will have to ver for its accumulation.

WHY NOT HELP SOME?

he Journal is very desirous of auding its readers that the letin, or Hon. Frank Oliver, both of them, are opposed to scription. The facts are avail- to anyone who cares to con- the files. In the days when Borden Government and its spaper supporters from one of Canada to the other were h-pooling conscription as im- iteable, the Bulletin tried, per- ently and consistently, to es- ish in the public mind the fact compulsory service was the way of really putting a coun- on a war footing—realizing there was need of cultivating lie opinion along that line if Robert Borden's promise of a million men was to be made l. The Bulletin believes as ly as ever that the only way out the whole strength of Can- into the war is by an all-round em of compulsory service; it still has a misgiving that lie opinion may not be unan- ous enough on the subject to e it practically possible to ap- compulsory service. Is the rial just certain now that the eriment and all their newspa- supporters were mistaken in days when they declared com- ory service could not be put force in Canada? Is it even ain that it stands for all-round pulsion itself? Or does it d only for singling out a hun- d thousand men who by ac- of birth happen to be of a ain age and sending them into trenches—but for leaving ybody else in the country free spend his time, energy and ey as he pleases? If the Jour- agrees with the Bulletin in matter of compulsion and es the Bulletin's suspicion there are a whole lot of peo- in the country who do not e with them, it would be bet- employed in putting in a lit- elated campaign on behalf of pulsory service than it is in wing bricks at a contemp- which did what it could to cultivate public opinion in that direction at a time when the Dominion Government and its news- paper friends were doing nothing to help, and all they could to ridicule the idea.

NEVER.

This war will never be won by the sort of economy that consists in advising somebody else to stop wasting.

A WAY OF ESCAPE.

Anyone who objects to being conscripted can, of course, avoid it by voluntarily enlisting in the meantime.

INACTION GETS NOWHERE.

The Allies have finally deposed King Constantine, and thus cleared their rear. If they had done it a year ago, while Russia was still a factor in the war, the situation in the Balkans would be less favorable to the enemy. "Watchful waiting" gets nowhere in war.

COMPULSORY SERVICE.

Compulsory service is the only way of putting the whole strength of a nation into a war; and the only way of levying the sacrifice of war equitably upon all citizens. And any sort of so-called compulsory service which does not do both these things is a fraud and a delusion.

A NEW ALLY.

It is hopeful to learn that the Russian provisional Government has won the first round in the "inevitable" fight with the forces of anarchy in the army. The regrettable fact is that these forces have attained such strength as makes a fight "inevitable." Russia cannot fight both the anarchists and the enemy vigorously at the same time. The anarchists in the Russian army are the latest all of the Huns.

POLITICS AS USUAL.

A coalition Government was not proposed for the purpose of introducing compulsory service. Sir Robert Borden announced his intention of applying conscription without consulting anybody outside his own party. He only asked for a coalition of parties to save him from his Quebec friends who do not favor conscription, and to re-establish him in the Premier- ship for another term. Partnerships, in business or politics, are not formed in that way. If Sir Robert wanted a coalition Government for the better management of the war he should have proposed it before he announced conscription, and given those whom he wanted to share the responsibility a voice in deciding what course the coalition should take. Having decided to use conscription as a means of renewing his hold upon office he was not entitled to ask help from any other quarter to "put over" conscription on those terms.

However much Canada may need conscription it does not need Sir Robert Borden as Premier. Sir Robert recognized that fact in proposing a fusion of the two parties in Parliament in support of conscription with himself as the head of a composite Government. That failing, he proposed a general election, on the basis that the electors could not reject him without also rejecting conscription, nor endorse conscription without continuing him in the Premier- ship.

All the way through the piece Sir Robert Borden has played "politics as usual," with the consistent purpose of continuing himself as head of the Government, the fate of conscription being a matter of secondary consideration. He has sought to tie himself up to conscription in such a way that conscription could not carry without carrying him also. The circumstance that he might be more of a load than conscription could carry has not counted.

It will endeavor, however, to answer questions sent to it by readers of The Bulletin to the best of its ability, reserving the right to ignore all that are trifling or of concern only to the questioner. To receive attention, every inquiry must bear some name and address of the questioner. This information is not wanted for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

Separation Allowance.

You should write the Department of Militia at Ottawa.

Conscription in Europe.

To the Bulletin: When was conscription adopted by European powers?

R. L. A., Edmonton.

A. Conscription or compulsory military service was introduced in modern times by Napoleon in 1798 and adopted by Prussia in the reconstruction of its army after June, 1806, and since about 1870 by most of the leading continental powers.

First Steamer on Atlantic.

To the Bulletin: About what time did the first steamer cross the Atlantic?

H. W. A., Edmonton.

A. To Canada belongs the credit of having built and engine the first steamer to cross the Atlantic. This was the Royal William, landed at Cape Cove, Quebec, 1821. In 1825 she sailed from Pictou, N.S., to Gravesend, arriving September 12, after 25 days' passage.

Durable Goods.

To the Bulletin: Will you please tell me through the Bulletin if a person has to pay duty on second hand goods, such as shoes and clothing that comes from the States? If so, is the duty the same as on new goods?

Goods brought in for sale would be dutiable but as settler's effects there is no duty.

Chased the Hen.

A near-sighted man was passing along a country road when his hat was whisked off by the wind and carried over a stone wall. He gave pursuit, but each time he thought he had it, it got yet another move on. Then a woman's angry voice rang out.

"What are you going there?"

He explained mildly that he was only trying to retrieve his hat, whereupon the woman said, "Your hat? There it is over there under the wall—that's our little black hen you've been chasing."

Unfortunate.

THE DOG QUESTION

Editor the Bulletin:

Sir,—I have noticed in the columns of this paper from time to time, articles on the dog nuisance, and thought it time to offer a few suggestions which have been in my mind for a considerable length of time.

The old custom of destroying all the female puppies is as unjust as it is old and is in line with the old saying, "the innocent must suffer for the guilty." I am sure if the male dogs were reduced to about two per cent. of the entire dog population and that two per cent. be closely confined, our towns and more especially our small towns and villages would be in a much cleaner and more sanitary condition. The merchants might then display their wares to advantage, the farmers could leave their vehicles along the street ready for home and many other such desirable changes would result if the farmers and townsmen who think they must keep dogs just act on this suggestion.

The practice of destroying the female and allowing the rascally males to roam at large ever became the custom is beyond my powers of deduction. The female doggie is equally good as a servant and as a companion or pet is beyond comparison with their ill-mannered brothers.

LEGAL INQUIRIES

Legal questions will be answered in the columns of The Bulletin, after being submitted to The Bulletin's own legal representatives. Write on one side of the paper only. Be brief. Send stamped envelope for reply.

To the Bulletin Legal Department:

On Nov. 4th, 1914, I had a man hired through an employment office in Edmonton, for six months at $8 per month. About two weeks after I asked this man to stay with me for one year for the sum of $200 to which he consented. On March 15th he went home and came back a week later telling me he had to go home. I tried to persuade him to stay but of no avail. He stayed home about six months, and then left and has been away ever since. Now up to the time he left, he had paid me $48 per month. Now he claims that I still owe him $152.00, and that he is threatening to sue. Could he do anything?

T. D. C., Morinville.

If you have paid the man at the rate of $8.00 a month he certainly has no claim against you.

Spoiled Prophecy

From Calgary Alberta.

Mr. Michener seems to have been elected, thus spoiling his own prophecy that three ministers would be defeated in the recent election. The ministers defeated were Rev. Mr. Hillocks, Rev. Bishop Smith of Cardston, and the third, who nearly met defeat, was Rev. Mr. Michener himself.

Fixing Price of Flour.

From Calgary Alberta.

A decision to be made in the case, the price of flour in Calgary is fixed by the prices as they happen to be determined upon by someone in Winnipeg, there would seem to be good reason to ask the government to investigate. And if flour prices all over the Dominion have to be fixed by some central body, why should not that central authority be the government itself?

Does Canada Want Seaports?

From Ottawa Citizen.

A delegation of business men from Vancouver is waiting upon the Dominion government with a request for federal aid to make Vancouver a national port. The same kind of federal aid would be to stop fixing the merchandise for bringing cargoes to Vancouver. At present, under the Canadian policy of high tariffs, every freighter that brings a cargo into any Canadian port from abroad is penalized for doing so. For instance, in the year 1915, the customs department collected an average tax of $20,461 upon every $100,000 worth of cargo brought into Canada. What would be the sense of building seaports at the national expense so long as the policy of discouraging shipping, by fixing it with such high protective tariffs is maintained?

Our Chief Reliance.

From Regina.

Canada must rely for years to come upon agricultural production chiefly to pay the war debts, and the welfare of the agricultural industry should be the chief consideration of all governments.

Sheridan Lawrence Visits Edmonton On Way To Calgary On Business Trip—Typical Example Of Northern Settler, He Radiates Optimism Of Great Undeveloped Land.

Sheridan Lawrence, the Fort Vermilion farmer and trader, is stopping at the Macdonald on his way to Calgary in connection with business.

Mr. Lawrence went north 32 years ago when a boy of sixteen, driving a pack team from Calgary, then the end of the steel, to where Peace River now stands. With him at the time was his mother and his six brothers and sisters, his father having preceded the family two years before.

Mr. Lawrence is just now shipping 10,000 bushels of wheat to Winnipeg, the big river steamer, D. A. Thomas, bringing it up the river to Peace River for him. He expects to net close to $2.00 on the grain.

If ever a man radiated the atmosphere of the northern farming country it is Sheridan Lawrence. With a confidence in its fitness for profitable home making and a thorough love of the north permeating his very being, his hearty smile and good natured, confident way of telling of the wonder land at the 58th parallel, made the Bulletin reporter fairly long to go north and grow up with the country. Mr. Lawrence is the father of eleven children, and in his own home has what is probably the farthest north public school on the North American continent outside of Alaska. The children are all his own children.

"Around Fort Vermilion," says Mr. Lawrence, "there is a vast country awaiting railroads and settlers." It has proven beyond a doubt by years of splendid yield its fitness for agricultural purposes.

When Mr. Lawrence was asked how far north stock raising and mixed farming would eventually reach in Canada, he smiled and said, "It's hard enough at present for people of the south to believe our stories, so we won't venture to lose the reputation we have for veracity by stating for publicity what we really think. Fort Vermilion at any rate will not be the confining way of telling of the wonder

BATTERS STEP INTO FAMOUS BEAN BALL

Grover Alexander Says Players Bring Danger To Themselves By Their Tactics.

The celebrated and disreputable "bean ball," which has been charged to every effective curve ball pitcher, became a reality, again going the rounds of the two major leagues. As a result there is a surplus of feeling when certain clubs get together.

Carl Mays has been openly charged with using the old weapon. Dick Rudolph has been threatened with annihilation by some hot-headed opponents. Elmer Myers narrowly escaped a bat thrown by Wawton Witt, a teammate to whom he was pitching in batting practice. Even Grover Alexander has been charged with heaving the dangerous fast one.

False, Says Stallings
George Stallings, manager of the Braves, declares the charges flung at his pitchers are only part of a concerted effort to bring the Braves into disrepute. He insists the particular reason for these efforts is known to him and declares there will be a showdown.

George Alexander was shocked when some one suggested to him that he had been using his great speed to drive batters away from the plate. He had a novel defence of the high inside fast one he uses occasionally.

The batter, he explained, in an eastern paper, often steps back off the plate. As the ball approaches he steps forward and often is successful in meeting the ball before it breaks. The batter, he believes, does this more often if he expects a curve ball. He expressed the belief that there is only one defence against tactics of this kind for the pitcher, and that is to pitch the high, fast one inside, forcing the batter to pop out or let the ball pass.

"If we passably allowed a batsman to take that hop and smash they might as well all be fast ones," he declared. "There are few pitchers to my knowledge who deliberately aim at a batter's head to drive him away from the plate, but they have to protect themselves. The batter is bringing danger to himself if he persists in stepping back and kicking up on this fast one, for when it breaks it is likely to catch him."

Carl Mays, Dutch Leonard and other stars have been accused of throwing the "bean ball," but it never has been fastened on any one.

KEEP UP SPORTS THROUGH TIME OF WAR STRESS

England Will Run Derby This Year To Keep Up Morale.

Every branch of sport has a lesson to learn from England, which country shut down all sports when that nation became embroiled in the war. Now, with thousands of the English turf has recently announced that the famous English Derby will be run this summer. The races were not run last year because of her sons dead and wounded. Great Britain finds it desirable to revive the racing classic. The reason is obvious. The people at home need diversion to give their minds a rest from the strain of sorrow that has fallen upon them through their country's activity in the war.

There are a hundred lessons that we can learn from the experience of our ally across the Atlantic. After the first six months of the war, England fell a victim of the same form of national hysteria that now threatens the United States. During this period of national unrest it was decided to abandon the Derby, the Oaks and other big racing features.

The States and Canada are engaged in the most serious work which ever confronted them. As they prepared for that work the people should not do so hysterically. There is a lesson in the announcement of the re-establishment of the English Derby and Oaks this summer.

Sporting Facts and Fancies

The Chicago White Sox ought to pass the hat among themselves and buy a loving cup for Cicotte. Whenever manager Roland wants to make sure of getting a game he puts that well known mound artist in the box and usually he delivers the goods.

Wanted: Some good pitchers by Connie Mack. Must be strong and willing to work. Don't have to work nights or rainy days. Apply at once, Athletics, Philadelphia.

Any other pitching armament who think they have the goods might get into communication with Hughie Jennings of the Detroit. Hughie wants to increase his staff and is looking around for material. But it's a mighty hard job to land a good pitcher these days.

The Yankees are certainly feeling the absence of Frank Gilheoley, who is slowly recovering from his injury. Frank's stick work is needed by the Donovan clan, and sometime in July he will be in shape to get into the game again.

If there is a star in the heavens that signifies anything in connection with baseball, that star must be at its brightest on June 14. Not alone is this the birthday of the great national pastime, but some of the best known players were born on this day. First on the list is Roger Bresnahan, former manager of the St. Louis Nationals, who was born on this day in the year 1859 at Tralee, Ireland. Archer and Needham, former catchers for the Cubs, were also born in the land of the Shamrock. It was on June 14, 1855, that the Western League was disbanded. It was on this day in 1893 that one of the freakiest games on record was played between the New York Nationals and Chicago. In that game the New Yorkers scored ten runs in the fourth inning, which was only one of the crazy phases of the game. George Davis being credited with a home run and a triple in this single inning.

Sunday baseball in Massachusetts for wartime charities: This has been the aim of Sam Johnson, president of the American League, and for this reason he has been trying to persuade Governor McCall of that state to give his sanction for Sunday games, which are prohibited by law.

JOHN DEWAR, WELL KNOWN IN BASEBALL, DEAD AT TORONTO

John Dewar, a well-known resident of Edmonton, who was a prominent figure in baseball and curling circles in this city, died at St. Michael's hospital, Toronto, on Friday, June 8th, of last week. He was the oldest son of the late David Dewar of Milton, Ont. He came to Edmonton twelve years ago from Toronto and was associated with his brother Robert Dewar in the management of the Windsor hotel on the South Side. Before his death he was employed at the St. James hotel.

For several years Mr. Dewar was secretary-treasurer of the Edmonton baseball club and in 1912 was president of the Western Canada league. He was a member of the Strathcona and Royal curling clubs and was an indefatigable secretary when the bonspiels were on. He had many friends in the city and the news of his death comes as a severe shock to them as it was not known that he was seriously ill.

ARGONAUT CLUB HAS ABOUT 200 MEN IN KHAKI

No club in Canada, nor perhaps in the British empire, can boast of a better record of enlistments than the Argonaut Rowing club of Toronto. Up to May 20 of this year no fewer than 190 members had taken up arms, and of these fifteen have been killed in action and one died in camp. A new honor roll has been issued by the club under the caption: "One glorious hour of crowded life is worth an age without a name." Following is a list of those who have made the supreme sacrifice or are prisoners of war:

Killed in action—J. Ross Binkley, W. D. P. Jarvis, J. E. Bowdler, A. E. Muir, George F. Boyd, A. L. McGeachie, Ardagh Coe, W. K. Pearce, C. de Fallot, H. E. B. Platt, G. G. Duncan, Colin Simpson, Cyril Hunter, G. B. Taylor, J. T. Walker.

Prisoners of war—Lyman Gooderham, C. R. Lyall.

Died in camp—N. B. Lockhart.

CLOSE TO 650 MEETINGS FOR TROTTERING RACES

Year Book of 1917 Will Contain Increase Of Racing Summaries Over 1916.

According to the latest and most available reports on hand, close to 650 dates have been so far claimed for trotting meetings this season, the majority being separate race meets rather than in connection with agricultural fairs, the latter being late in announcing.

This means that, under favorable conditions, the Year Book for 1917 will contain more race meeting summaries than the 1,161 published for last year.

According to the present arrangements for stake and purse programs, the four Eastern members of the grand circuit—Philadelphia, Poughkeepsie, Syracuse and Hartford—will offer a total of close to $140,000 for early closing stakes, class purses and specials. That this total will be eventually reached is fully conceded, in spite of the fact that two stakes at Poughkeepsie worth $4,000 failed to fill, and some doubts are entertained for the prospects of filling two others, one each at Hartford and Syracuse. The events are known as the Battle Royale, at a value of $5,000 and $2,000 respectively.

The Syracuse event is also an inter-territory purse, with entries to come eligible as late as August 27. State fairs will no doubt adhere to their original programs until the last entry date falls due, with the expectation that newcomers will win races.

fast enough to be eligible, and show up, while some of the present turf sensations, like Mabel Trask, St. Frisco and Zomrecht might show such form as to encourage owners of newcomers to compete. Even if both of these events are declared off, their places will no doubt be filled up with additional races, and the total amount now promised is offered to racing stables. Under any circumstances, the State fair's racing department will total its purse values to the regulation $40,000, besides the extra for fifth horses and special events.

Adventures of Uncle Wiggily

Uncle Wiggily and the Cheshire Cat

Copyright, 1917, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

Uncle Wiggily Longears, the rabbit gentleman, was hopping along through the woods one day, wondering what sort of an adventure he would have, and he was thinking about Alice in Wonderland and what a queer tea party he had been to the day before, when the Mad March Hare smashed the Hatter's watch because the hands always stayed at 5 o'clock tea time.

"If anything like that is going to happen to me today," said the bunny uncle to himself, "I ought to have brought Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzles along, so she could enjoy the fun, I'll just hop along, and if anything queer starts I'll go back after her."

So he went on a little farther, and all of a sudden, he saw, lying on the woodland path, a piece of cheese.

"Ha!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "I wonder if Jellie or Jillie Longtail, the mouse children, dropped that out of their trap? I'll take it to them, I guess."

He picked up the bit of cheese, thinking how glad the mouse boy and girl would be to have it back, when, all at once, he heard behind him a voice asking:

"Oh, did you find it? I'm so glad, thank you! And from under a bush out stepped a cat wearing a large smile on the front of its face. The cat stretched out its claw and took the bit of cheese from Uncle Wiggily."

"Oh! Is that yours?" asked the bunny gentleman, in surprise.

"It's Cheshire cheese; isn't it?" asked the cat.

"I—I believe so," answered the bunny.

"Then, as I'm the Cheshire cat it's mine. Cheshire cat meet me here, you do? So glad to see you!" and the cat shook paws with the cheese just as if Uncle Wiggily had introduced them.

"I dare say it's all right," went on the bunny uncle.

"Of course it is!" laughed the cat, smiling more than ever. "I'm so glad you found my cheese. I was afraid the March Hare had taken it for the silly 5 o'clock party. But I'm glad he didn't. At first I took you for the March Hare. You look like him, being a rabbit."

"My birthday is in April," said Uncle Wiggily, bowing.

"That's better," spoke the Cheshire cat. "You have done me a great favor by finding my cheese, and I hope to be able to do you one some day."

"Pray do not mention it," spoke the bunny uncle, smiling like an angel, and shy, as he always was. He was just going to ask about Alice in Wonderland when the cat ran away with its cheese.

"Never mind," thought Uncle Wiggily. "That was the beginning of an adventure, anyhow. I wonder what the next part will be?" He did not have long to wait.

All of a sudden, as he was walking along through the woods, out of a tree on his red, white and blue striped barber pole rheumatism crutch, there was a rustling in the bushes and out popped a whole lot of hungry rats.

"Ah, there they are!" cried the rat, seizing hold of Uncle Wiggily by his ears.

"Yes, and just in time, too!" cried another, grabbing the bunny by his paws. "Into our den with it before the mousey rat comes along and takes it away from us!"

"With that the rats, of which there were about five hundred and sixteen, began hustling Uncle Wiggily down a hole in the ground, and the first he knew they had him inside a wooden room in an underground house and had locked the door, taking the key out.

"What does this mean?" cried the bunny uncle. "Why do you treat me this way?"

"Why, it can speak!" cried several of the rats, in surprise.

"Of course, I can!" cried Uncle Wiggily, his pink nose twinkling. "But why do you call me IT?"

"Because you are a piece of cheese," said one rat, "and we always call cheese IT."

"Cheese? I, cheese?" asked astonished Uncle Wiggily.

"Of course," cried the biggest rat of all. "You're Cheshire cheese. Why, you perfume the whole room. We're so hungry for you. We thought the grocer had forgotten to send you. But it's all right now. Oh, what a delightful meal we shall have. We love Cheshire cheese," and the rats looked very hungrily at the bunny uncle—very hungrily indeed.

"Oh, what shall I do?" thought Uncle Wiggily. "I see what has happened. When I picked up the Cheshire cat's piece of cheese some of the perfume from it must have stuck to my paws. The rats smelled that and think I'm IT. IT!" murmured the bunny gentleman. "As if I were a game of tag!"

The rats in the locked room were very busy getting out their cheese

Letters to Uncle Tom

Nephew to U. S.

Dear Uncle Tom—It has been a long time since I wrote to you, and I will try to be regular now. I want to thank you for the badge you sent me. It is very nice, and we are coming up to Canada in a few weeks. I will close.

VELMA MAE SMITH,

Some Riddles

Dear Uncle Tom—This is my third letter to your club, and would like to see it in print. Our auntie is staying with us because our mother is going to the hospital. I have not written a long letter so I will close with some riddles. How is the best way to carry water in a sieve? Answer: Freeze it. Why are the highest leaves on a tree like a dog's tail? Because it is farthest from the bark.

EVIE M. A. FERGUSON,
Vegreville, Alta.

River Runs Through Farm

Dear Uncle Tom—I received my badge some time ago and think it is pretty. I like to go to school every day and I like my teacher. I have fifteen keys. Our school is out now for the summer. We live close to the road, where we see all the teams and automobiles every day.
